CJ West and the DOWN TOWN TRAIN

Biographies

Christine West – Vocals, percussion

MWEFS (married, white, eclectic female singer) currently participating in rock, blues, country and other various styles with a small group. Vocally energetic and powerful, Christine brings the music of CJ West and the DOWNTOWN TRAIN to life. Her past included singing many different styles with the Notre Dame Concert Choir, country music with the award-winning band "Heartland", jazz with "MAJK Jazz" and pop music as "The Chick" in "Nick and a Chick". She has made many freelance appearances with other local bands and musicians such as "The Bus Drivers" and "Fountainhead" and she is a "regular" with the "Player's Night Irregulars." Christine loves being where the action is. She "just wants to have fun!"

Bob Aresti – Vocals, guitar

MGAM (married guitarist addicted to music) – Bob's habit of playing guitar and singing began at a very early age. He has been heavily under the influence of Chicago, the Doobie Brothers and Boston ever since. Bob says that "Terry Kath of Chicago was one of the greatest rock guitarists of our time, and the guys in the Doobie Brothers and Boston had very original sounds". Over the years Bob has varied his habit performing with several bands and playing all types of music. He was a founding member of both Phase II and Prelude. He also dabbled in Hot Property and Dus-T-Road. His rehabilitation efforts include working with Inspiration, a Christian Rock group. In 2006, Bob recorded a CD of original songs called "Stories To Tell". His road of musical addiction has led him to the tracks CJ West and the Downtown Train!

John West – Drums, vocals

ATMTM (attractive, multi-talented musician) CJ West and the Downtown Train know John as their drummer and harmonica player but he can change it up and play rhythm guitar and piano, as well. He appeals to many of the senses. He has engineered sound for local bands "The Daily Planet", "95 North" and "Heartland" as well as in his recording studio, "West-End Studios", where he has produced many recording projects. John has played as a solo performer and he has worked with his church choir for many years with hopes of being redeemed for past transgressions. He's given all that up now to continue a life of debauchery with the Downtown Train.

Larry Flanigan – Bass Guitar, vocals, drums

LIAPDTBG (Larry, "I also play drums" The Bass Guy) Larry came over from the "dark side" (drums) in the early 80s and started playing bass with a country and bluegrass band (Ed Kohl and The Chaparrals). He has been "Larry, the bass guy" with several other bands over the last ten years dabbling in rock, jazz, blues and country (Crushing Scarlet, Sarah T Band, Bongo Fury, The Brownstone Ramblers and Unfinished Business.) He played drums and percussion in high school and college, where many questionable lifestyles and habits emerge. At times, he's found it hard to stay in the light and can be seen on a drum kit from time to time. He enjoys playing different genres of music and is quite happy to hop aboard CJ West and the DOWNTOWN TRAIN where multiple personalities are encouraged, and continue the musical journey.

Guy Wallis – Keyboard, mandolin, harmonica and who knows what else?

MIV (Multi-Instrumental Vagabond) Guy wandered into the path of CJ West and the DOWNTOWN TRAIN. after touring with the Jimmy Buffett tribute band, "Changes in Latitudes". He hopped on board and has been heard playing many instruments with us ever since. He also sings and is a studio engineer. He teaches others his rail-roaming ways at Performance Music in Westfield, Massachusetts. Guy plays keyboards, mandolin, harmonica, fiddle and bass (that we know of). Rumor has it he even plays the drums! Other tracks he diverts to are Moto Reggae/Soca party band, Greg Garstka and Wolfgang, Lemon Sky Duo, Mic Finnerty and The Tinkers and Rick Sylvester and Higher Ground. When he can't find an open box car, he plays all by his lonesome.

Thank you very much for the incredible show you put on for us in Seymour. It was a great way for me to spend my Sunday and our patrons that attended felt the same way. You guys got a lot of compliments! Musically, you are all fantastic! I think the way you set up the show with the Woodstock recordings was incredible and the information you gave about the groups- much of which I had never heard or read before. We'll be looking to have you back!

"The skies threatened and we had to take a break and the band unplugged and tarped their equipment. Not to be deterred, CJ West and Downtown Train had it covered. They grabbed their instruments and played acoustic, up close and personal. Awesome idea and a great way to keep the remaining crowd entertained and included! It was a big sing along!

Thank you all so much, especially for weathering the storm the way you did. Lots of groups would have refused to do anything beyond waiting for the skies to clear!"

The City of West Haven, Parks & Rec Department said…
"Dear C J West and the Downtown Train:
WHPR and the City of West Haven is pleased that your band kicked off our summer concert series. What I witnessed last night at the performance was some happy people enjoying a beautiful evening and listening, singing along, and dancing to great country music! Your band is on our "A" list for future summer concert seasons. Thanks much."

The Durham Fair said.....
"The sounds of CJ West and the Downtown Train are expected at every Durham Fair. Harmonies are unique and the collaborations are spot on. CJ West has emerged as one of CT most popular country bands. However, it's clear that not just the sounds of Country music have influenced this well balanced band. Rock and Blues can be heard throughout the performance all done with a contemporary flair. The bands stage presence creates an enjoyable time for all. Middlesex County can be proud to claim them as their own."

The 360 Federal Credit Union said.....
"We had CJ West & Downtown Train play at our company Holiday Party and they did a fantastic job!! They played a wide variety of music for everyone to enjoy. They had everyone dancing and singing along. We would definitely bring them back to our party again."

CJ West and the Downtown Train

Lyman Orchards said.....

"I have hired CJ West and The Downtown Train for several years on various occasions. This summer, they will once again be playing music at this event, returning by popular demand."

"The Downtown Train's musicians are top notch and, together, they are a great band. They are professional and easy to work with. They arrived, set up and played according to schedule. They are not "too loud". Their equipment works properly and they break it down at the end of the performance on a timely basis, as well."

"We requested that CJ West and The Downtown Train play predominately country music and a mix of all types of music at our event. They did as they were asked and played a nice mix of music that was appropriate for the audience. They even played a few requests. The crowd loved them as always! - - Anthony R.- Entertainment Coordinator - Lyman's

WELCOME TO THE 2014

DURHAM FAIR Est. 1916

SEPTEMBER 25-28, 2014

DURHAMFAIR.COM

The 95th Durham Fair hosts national and local entertainment

By Mark Dionne
Town Times

The Main Stage acts at the 95th annual Durham Fair follow past patterns – heavy on the country and recognizable names doing the fair circuit. But fairgoers will also have the opportunity to seek out local entertainers.

On Friday, Sept. 26 at 7 p.m., Tower of Power will play the Main Stage. Tower of Power has been playing soul and funk-based music for more than 40 years. The band has collaborated and toured, sometimes as an entire band and sometimes just with their horn section, with many musicians during that time, including Little Feat, John Lee Hooker, the Grateful Dead, and Huey Lewis and the News.

On Saturday, Sept 27 at 7 p.m., the Main Stage will host the country rock act Montgomery Gentry. The duo, composed of Eddie Montgomery and Troy Gentry, won a Country Music Association award for Best Vocal Duo in 2000 and have charted several singles, including "If You Ever Stop Loving Me," "Something To Be Proud Of," and "Lucky Man."

Country singer-songwriter Jo Dee Messina will close the Main Stage on Sunday, Sept. 28 at 2 p.m.

Each headlining act has a local act as an opening band. Wendy Manemeit, entertainment director for the Durham Fair, said, "We like to give back to the local bands because it's really our community fair."

Mixed Signals, a central Connecticut blues-based band, opens for Tower of Power. Mixed Signals has played local venues like Matty's Next Door Sports Bar in Middletown, Black Eyed Sally's in Hartford, and the Winchester Cafe in Portland. Mixed Signals has also been at the Durham Fair and uses a photo of the band playing on the fair's Center Stage as the cover photo of their official website.

The Monthei Brothers Band will open for Montgomery Gentry. Joe and John Monthei grew up in the Lake Beseck neighborhood of Middlefield and have played in different bands around the country, but are now locally based. Their website bio reads, "[T]hey are looking to play more gigs right here in Durham and Middlefield. After all, this is where it all began for them several decades ago, and this is where they still call home."

Both Friday and Saturday opening acts will play at 5:45 p.m.

"The sounds of CJ West and the Downtown Train are expected at every Durham Fair," Manemeit wrote. The country and classic rock band will open for Messina at 12:45 p.m. CJ West and the Downtown Train have played in local bars, fairs, and even Lyman Orchards festivals.

If your band is named Jackson Hill, you immediately have local credibility. The country and rock band, which opened for Steel Magnolia at the 2011 Durham Fair and for Justin Moore at the 2013 fair, will play at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 28 on Center Stage.

As for the Center Stage on Thursday, Manemeit wrote, "[We're] trying to make Thursday a local school showcase." The Coginchaug band and show

New Year's Eve Silver & Gold Gala Ball

Ring in the New Year with bells on at the "Silver & Gold Gala Ball" to be held on Saturday, Dec. 31. At this sparkling event, dance to the music of CJ West and the Downtown Train. The band has shown off its versatility and humor on several occasions at Heritage Village playing, as they put it, "Country Rock, Rhythm 'n' Blues and Whatever." Band front-woman, Christine West, shared with us that the band has roots in country music from "Patsy to Paisley" and from "Merle to Miranda." Adding to country, the band has ties to pop music and rock and roll. West said, "We could say we play from 'Perry to Perry to Perry — any of them!" referring to Katy Perry from the pop world, Joe Perry from rock and roll and the Band Perry of county music fame. Last year, the band created a show, with the Villagers in mind, which is a tribute to the bands who graced the stage at Woodstock 1969, complete with costume changes, stories and stage show. West says the Downtown Train will be taking the Village on a wild ride to visit several different times and places on New Year's Eve. CJ West and the Downtown Train is a favorite at Heritage Village, so be sure to get your tickets early.

Doors at Sarah Cooke Hall open at 8 p.m.; music begins 8:30 p.m. Enjoy a raffle as well as a special 50-50. Coffee, tea and ice will be provided – BYOB and munchies. All Villagers and their guests are welcome, especially singles. Tickets are $20 (HV owners); $22 (all others), on sale at the Activities Desk through Dec. 29. Sorry, no refunds. No tickets will be sold at the door. For more information, call 203-264-9644 ext. 221.
